

Author Visits: Amy May is a passionate author dedicated to inspiring young minds through the magic of storytelling. With a passion for creation and a deep love for literature, Amy has crafted engaging and relatable stories that captivate readers of all ages. Her visit promises to be an enriching experience for students and educators alike.

What to Expect:

- Duration: A full day of excitement!
- Audience: Amy May will work with 4 groups of students throughout the day, tailoring her sessions to suit different age levels and interests.
- Activities: Amy will read from her captivating books, share insights into the creative writing process, and engage students in interactive games and discussions.
- Inspiration: Amy's visit aims to ignite a passion for reading and encourage students to pursue their dreams with enthusiasm.
- Support: By booking Amy's visit, you contribute to the publishing of new and exciting titles that will continue to inspire young readers.

Logistics:

- Date: [Specify your preferred date]
- Location: Your school/library/community center
- Cost: $550 (plus travel expenses)

Travel Expenses:

- Amy May will be traveling from Peace River to your location. Travel expenses, including accommodation (if necessary), will be added to the base cost of $550.

Why Choose Amy May:

- Amy May's engaging storytelling in which children are drawn to, make her the perfect choice for an author visit. Her visit is designed to align with educational objectives and foster a love for reading. Your investment supports the creation of new literary works that will continue to inspire and educate students.

Booking Information - To book Amy May for an exciting author visit, please contact her at 780- 625-2766 or email her at authoramymay@hotmail.com. Secure your date now and embark on a day filled with imagination, inspiration, and the joy of reading!

Note: Prices and availability are subject to change.